Unchanging Philosophy and Past Growth

— The TOMY Group Values

The TOMY Group has inherited the Founding Philosophy as a set of unwavering values since Eiichiro Tomiyama created Tomiyama Toy Seisakusho, the predecessor to TOMY, in 1924. While the toys that are sought after continue to evolve as time passes, we continue to hold on to the idea of exciting the world's markets with our outstanding products.

The Philosophy Continuously Inherited

Passion for Toy Manufacturing

We continue to inherit the original passion of 11-year-old Eiichiro Tomiyama to create truly excellent quality products with play value for children all over the world with infinite possibilities for the future.

Coexistence and Coprosperity with Stakeholders

Formed with like-minded peers, The Japan Toy Association included within its charter the idea that friendly competition, coexistence, and coprosperity will lead to the development of Japan's toy industry and personal growth. Eiichiro Tomiyama's ideal of coexistence and coprosperity lives on today as TOMY's Founding Philosophy.

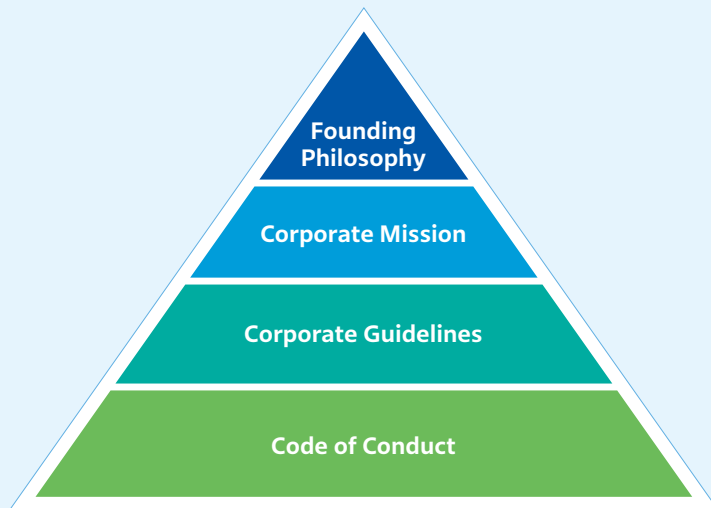

Focus on Quality That Will Be Respected Worldwide

After World War II, as inferior products were rampant, we worked to further improve our quality while receiving evaluations about our quality from around the world. Through these efforts, in 1971, we became the first Japanese toy manufacturer to receive the Symbol of Excellence Award* from Sears, Roebuck and Co.
